

Using the KKM theorem

Shira Zerbib

16 November 2025

The KKM theorem, due to Knaster, Kuratowski, and Mazurkiewicz in 1929, is a fundamental result in fixed-point theory, which has seen numerous extensions and applications. In this talk we discuss a few generalizations of the KKM theorem and their applications to problems in discrete geometry and combinatorics.